

Women's Legacy Award HONORING AGGIE WOMEN

Shelley Potter '78

National president of Chi Omega, the sorority whose Texas A&M chapter she helped found, and a past president of the national Chi Omega Foundation. She is president of the award-winning architecture and landscape architecture firm POTTER, with offices in Dallas and Longview. She has enhanced the built environment with landscape design reflecting beauty and sense of place. She is an Outstanding Alumna of A&M's College of Architecture. In 2009, Potter became the second woman to chair The Association of Former Students' Board of Directors; she also co-chaired The Association's building enhancement task committee for the $17 million renovation of the Clayton W. Williams Jr., Alumni Center. Her involvement with The Association includes helping found the Greek Former Student Network; serving as president of the Deep East Texas A&M Club; and, in 2011, receiving the Women's Former Student Network's Legacy Award.
